Elba Water & Electric Board votes to enforce "late by times" on utility bills

During the Elba Water and Electric Board meeting held Monday evening, Aug. 18, the board passed a motion to enforce the "late by" times on monthly utility statements for customers and to apply late fees for those bills received after the times indicated on the bills.

On the monthly utility bills, it is stated to pay the late fee amount if the payment arrives after 5:00 p.m. on the 15th of the month and the delinquent amount [if payment arrives at city hall] after 5:00 p.m. on the 20th of the month, said W&E superintendent Tom Maddox.

Payments delivered to the 'drop box' at city hall after 5:00 p.m. on the 15th and 20th will no longer be considered late exempt.

Elba Water and Electric offices at Elba City Hall are open to receive payments Monday-Friday 8:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m.

If the 15th or 20th falls on a Saturday or Sunday, the drop box payments will be accepted as late exempt if payment is inside the drop box before 8:00 a.m. on Monday morning. Also, if the 15th or 20th falls on a holiday observed by Elba City Hall, payments made in the drop box will be accepted as late exempt if inside the drop box by 8:00 a.m. the next business day.

Also, during Monday evening's meeting, the W&E board passed a motion to not assess the $50 delinquent fee on the 21st to any accounts when the balance remaining [by that date] is only the late fee that was charged on the 16th. As of the 21st, those accounts when the balance is only the 10% late fee will also not be subject to be disconnected.

"This motion was passed by the board in an effort to help alleviate those who have sent their payments in good effort, but payment arrived late due to circumstances beyond the customer's control," Maddox said. "In these cases, customer often times does not even know they owe a late fee from getting additional fees and disconnection."

Paying utility bills prior to the 15th of each month avoids any late or delinquent fees.

As a reminder: a customer who has had an account in good standing for twelve months can request that one late fee be waved.

Martinetti withdraws candidacy for Elba City Council, District 3

On Friday, Aug. 18, Todd Martinetti announced he was withdrawing his candidacy to be elected the District Three council member for the Elba City Council.

"It is after speaking to numerous fellow citizens and happily like-minded constituents that as of August 15, 2025, I am withdrawing my candidacy for Council Person for Elba's Third District," Martinetti said. "I love Elba and its people. I adopted this town a year ago, and I found a home."

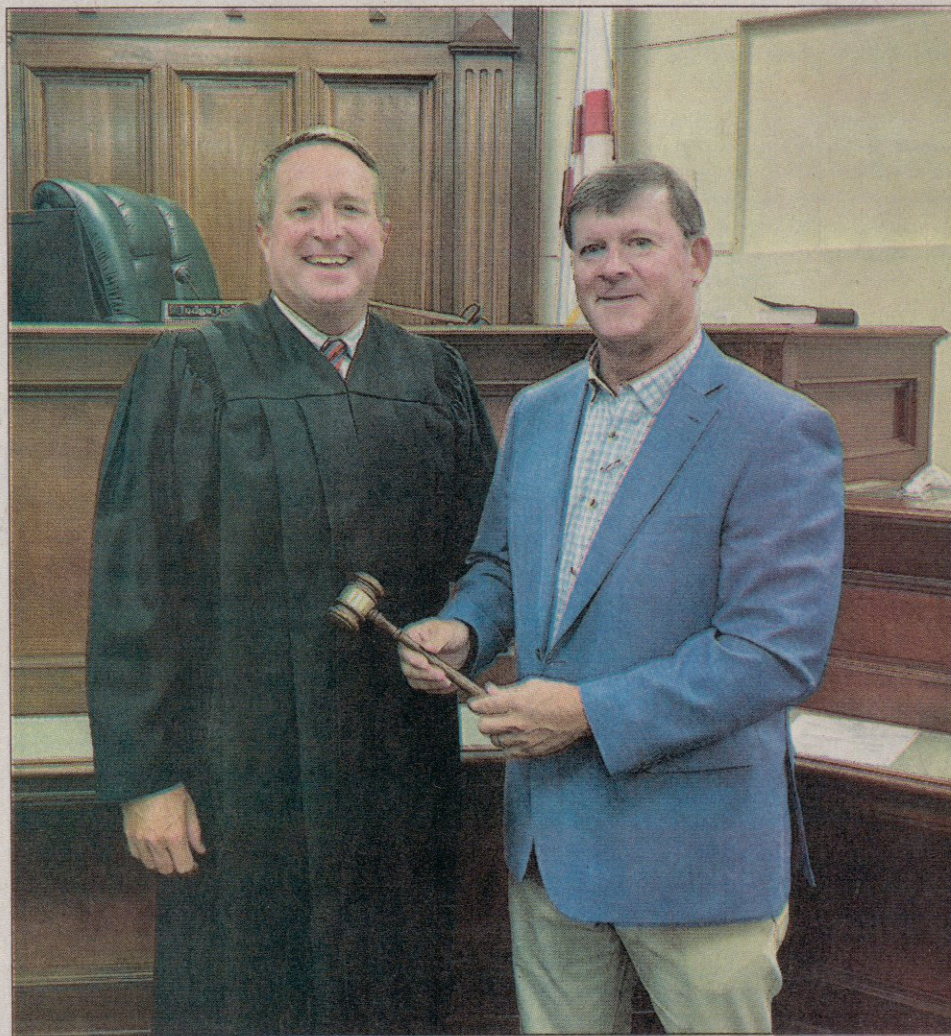

Martinetti said he initially qualified to seek election because he was frustrated with the lack of clarity and transparency.

"Hopefully this election will see a turnover of stagnation in the community by individuals serving for numerous terms and serving on multiple boards when they should be focused on the job at hand," Martinetti said. "Being a public servant should be your focus, not prestige or personal gain."

While he no longer seeks election, Martinetti still encourages all citizens of Elba to vote Tuesday, Aug. 26th.

"Let's make Elba a place we are proud of and happy to live in once again," he said.

Coffee County District Judge Josh Wilson recently was elected to serve as the President of the Alabama District Judges Association for fiscal year 2025-26. Judge Wilson was elected at the Alabama Circuit and District Judges Conference held July 28-30. He has served on the Executive Committee of the District Judges Association since 2021 and has served as a county representative, treasurer, secretary, and vice-president for the association during that time. The District Judges Association is made up of the 106 District Judges from all across the State of Alabama, and Judge Wilson said it is an honor and privilege to serve the association as its next president. He said he appreciates the support and confidence of the States District Court Judges. Pictured above is Judge Wilson (left) accepting the passing of the gavel from outgoing President Judge Matt Horne from Barbour County.

News Brief: Garbage pickup days changing in Elba

During the Elba City Council meeting held Monday evening, Aug. 18, city clerk Sally Bane reminded council members and residents that the household garbage pickup schedule for most Elba residents would be changing, beginning Sept. 1st.

Bane said the contractor, MDI Services, had been placing stickers on customer garbage cans over the past few weeks indicating the change to the customer's pickup day each week. As of Monday evening's meeting, she said most all customers that will have a change in pickup day should have received their sticker indicating the new pickup day each week.

Bane said MDI will implement the new pickup days [routes] beginning Sept. 1st. She added that any resident who feels his/her garbage can was missed regarding the new pickup day notice, should call Elba City Hall at (334) 897-2333 to question or report it. If there is an issue, Bane said MDI would be notified.

SOS launches Alabama Combats Trafficking program

Wes Allen, Alabama's Secretary of State, has partnered with the Alabama Law Enforcement Agency to launch Alabama Combats Trafficking (ACT), a program designed to engage Alabama businesses in the nationwide fight against human trafficking.

Alabama businesses can sign up to participate in this program by completing an application at this link: <https://www.sos.alabama.gov/act/get-involved>. The Secretary of State's website will feature participating businesses and their address. They will also be provided information that will save lives with tips on identifying and stopping trafficking, and a decal to place in visible location at their business.

"I am encouraging all Alabama businesses to participate in this important initiative and encourage all Alabamians to share the ACT website and flyer on their social media," Allen said. "The Alabama Combats Trafficking program provides citizens with the opportunity that could assist with spotting and reporting cases of human trafficking. We are bringing the fight against human trafficking to the forefront of minds and hearts across our state."

ALEA Secretary Hal Taylor said, "The ACT initiative will raise awareness about the hidden crime of human trafficking. When the public knows the signs and stays vigilant, they become powerful partners in helping law enforcement identify victims and stop traffickers."

The Alabama Combats Trafficking program has also garnered support from the Alabama District Attorneys Association and Alabama Sheriffs Association.

Windy Thoughts

with Linda Hodge, Publisher

It was nice to receive a sweet letter from paper subscriber Nell Zinn last week. The letter accompanied her subscription renewal to the paper. She wrote, "Hello to all of you in Elba. I still enjoy The Elba Clipper. I am 91-years-old but grew up near Elba (Bluff Springs). I graduated from Elba High School in 1950 - married my husband in 1953 and moved to Duncan, Oklahoma where I have lived since then. Still have nieces living in Elba. I live alone in my home, still take care of my bills, etc. In pretty good health. Just wanted to add a "thank you" for your wonderful weekly." It's things like this that puts a smile on our face and reminds us of the 'why' we do what we do! It was great to hear from you Mrs. Zinn, and we hope we continue to make you proud back home in Elba!!

Well...the municipal elections are next Tuesday, and we hope you all are planning to go VOTE! Based on all the social media posts we have seen this entire election process, if it is not a great voter turnout, especially here in Elba, we will be highly disappointed. All those folks that comment regularly on social media sure seem to have a big interest in this year's elections, and we hope they all show up and cast their vote. That is what the process is in place for... to give the citizens a voice. Which ever way you mark that ballot Tuesday, please make sure it is for those you truly believe will do what is best for our community. That is the only way we continue to move forward and prosper.

How are Grief/Mourning Different When a Loved One with Alzheimer's Dies?
When a loved one has Alzheimer's, grieving can begin the day you learn of the Alzheimer's diagnosis, or you may notice feelings of grief as your loved one begins to lose their memory and starts to struggle with daily tasks. As the person with Alzheimer's capacity declines, feelings of loss can become more profound. Even though you want to do everything you can to slow down the progression of the disease, there is often not much you can do. This can make you feel hopeless or out of control.
It may feel like your grief is a never-ending rollercoaster, and your feelings will likely be unpredictable. You may feel angry one day and sad the next. There will be moments of happiness in there too, and that may even cause feelings of guilt for feeling happy while a loved one continues to suffer.
After your loved one passes, you will grieve and mourn again. However, it is common for surviving spouses and family members to feel a sense of relief that their loved one is no longer suffering and that this chapter in their own lives has closed. Unfortunately, this can also lead to survivor's guilt because you feel guilty for feeling relieved. Know that these feelings are normal.
Ways to Manage Grief
Face your feelings. Instead of trying to hide from your feelings or push them aside, embrace them. Know that sadness and grief will be a part of your life and that this is ok.
Know that many people will not understand your grief. Many people think grief happens when someone dies, not when that person is still alive. So they may not realize you are grieving while your loved one is still alive.
Make sure you talk to someone and share your feelings. This may be a trusted friend or family member or even a counselor or therapist.
Take care of yourself. It may be hard to muster the energy to socialize at this time, especially as you need to spend more time caring for your loved one. Spending time with friends can help you to be a better caregiver. Try to carve out time for things you enjoy and that bring you joy.
Give yourself time to heal. It would be nice to be able to know exactly when your grief will end, but that is impossible to know. It will be a long process. Know that eventually your grief will start to subside, and you will start to feel happy.

Our youngest grandson Cannon turned three this week and I reminded my daughter that every time I asked when he was going to get his first haircut she said when he turned three. I really don't have problem with the length of his hair or how it looks, but tease her that when he gets it cut she is afraid he will change from her baby into a little man. Still waiting!

For what it is worth....

 The high school football season kicks off this week and for the first time in ages many area fans are predicting the Elba Tigers will have to play their best just to have a winning record after years of being one of the state's top small school programs. It is true the Tigers have been one of the top teams in the state the last three seasons and advanced to back-to-back semifinal contests the last two seasons, and it is also true the Tigers have lost twenty-six players the last two years to graduation, which means the team has lost more players to graduation than it will dress out this season. However, it also seems that here in Tigertown the only thing that changes are the numbers on the jerseys, and the old football adage 'next man up' is a way of life for anyone that wears black and gold on Friday nights. I know the schedule may be the toughest in a long time and Elba will be a little short in numbers and experience, but I am excited to see what his year's team can accomplish now that it is its turn to take the field and become Elba Tigers.

 The football season is always filled with excitement and anticipation early on and the same is true this year for all the teams in our coverage area. New Brockton has a new coach and a new quarterback to add to some really talented veterans that has the Gamecock fans chomping at the bits for the season to start, while Zion Chapel has some of its top players coming back after a seven-win season and has its fans thinking playoffs, once again; Kinston is young, but talented and has its fans looking forward to each and every Friday night; and, Brantley has a new coach that was once an all-state quarterback at the school and has its fans believing this will be a season that adds a chapter to the history books. It is fun to be a high school football fans, no matter who you cheer for, and I just hope all the fans will remember to 'let'em hear you cheer' as they do their best to make them proud.

 It seemed more than a little ironic last week that when Coosa Christian suspended its coach for the season to avoid serious punishment from the Alabama High School Athletic Association that it went out and got former Hoover head coach Rush Propst to fill in for the season. Coosa Christian had been plagued with issues in its football program for a couple of years since joining the AHSAA and was facing a restrictive probation that would have kept it out of the post-season for at least one year, and in an attempt to appease the folks in charge chose to put its head coach on the shelf for the season, a plan that won the praise of state officials and cleared the way for the football team to jump back in the playoff picture. I know that Rush Propst has been one of the winningest coaches in the state, and nation, for a long time, and that since he was named the school's head coach it has already been written in as state champions. However, there has also never been a coach in the state of Alabama, or Georgia, as controversial as Propst, and it seems like everywhere he goes controversy follows. Coosa Christian may have survived the frying pan, but is still mighty close to the fire.

 The college football season is also just around the corner and some games that have caught my attention are Auburn at Baylor on Friday, Aug. 29, followed on Saturday, Aug. 30 with the must-see games that include Alabama at FSU, Texas at Ohio State and LSU at Clemson. Notre Dame will travel to Miami for a rare Sunday match-up on August 31, and the next week on Sept. 6 Michigan will head to Oklahoma. The Texas game is a rematch of last season's semifinal playoff contest against the Buckeyes, while you know the Seminole fans will be doing the chop when the Tide rolls into Tallahassee, and what has been called the best Bengal Tiger team in decades will try to survive at Death Valley. I really don't watch that much college football, but I may at least have to catch the highlights of a few of these games.

 Ye Ole Polish Prognosticator came over to the house over the weekend to talk about the upcoming high school football season and before handing over this week's picks made the prediction that Elba would be much better than many believe and be a playoff contender, New Brockton would be the surprise team in the area and make the playoffs, Zion Chapel would see its recent history of adding two wins each season to its record halted, Kinston would be better than many think and have a major surprise up its sleeve, and Brantley would bounce back and get back in the post-season after a one-year absence. Hmmm.... Now on to this week's fearless forecast.

ELBA VS. LUVERNE

The Pea River felines will host a hungry litter of kitties in their season opener and you can bet their guests still remember the beating they took just a year ago. While the felines should be big underdogs in this match-up, look for them to rise to the occasion and open the season with a bang to let everyone know they are still alive and well.

ELBA 27 LUVERNE 26

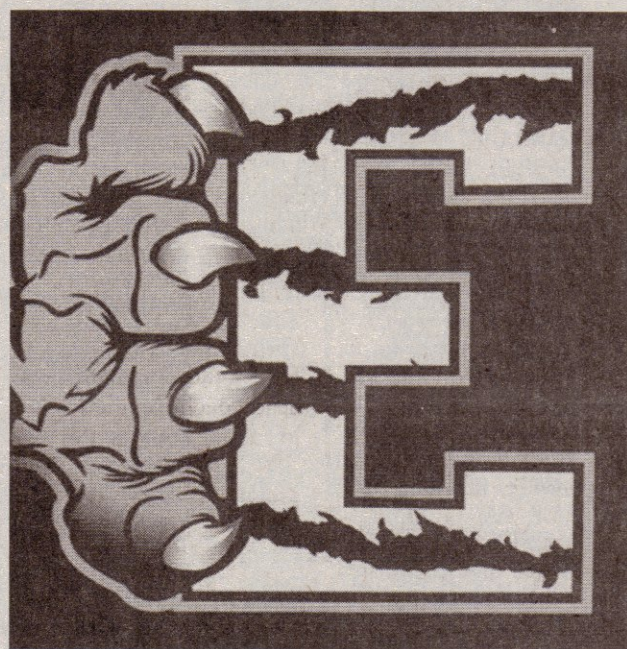

Elba Tigers host Luverne in season opener

The Elba Tigers will renew their oldest football rivalries on Friday night when they host the 2A Luverne Tigers, in a season-opening match-up at Tiger Stadium.

The series between the teams began way back in 1923, and after 75 meetings Elba holds a 43-31-1 series edge and has won four of the last five meetings, including a 50-22 road win last season. The teams played a total of sixty games in fifty-six years between 1949-2005, but the rivalry was then put on hold until 2012, and since then the teams have met seven times.

The series also features two of the state's all-time winningest small school football powers with Elba having won 630 games in its 104-year football history, including eight state championships and 22 area/region titles, while Luverne has claimed 626 wins in its 105-year football history, and has claimed two state titles and 15 area/region crowns.

"Luverne has a very good football team with good size and team speed and we know we will have our hands full on Friday night," stated Elba Tiger head coach Jon Cooper. "They had a lot of injuries last season that prevented them from ever really putting its best eleven on the field at the same time. However, this is a new year, all their players are healthy and I am sure they are looking forward to getting on the bus Friday night and coming to Elba. This has been a rivalry for a long time, and Friday night will just be the latest chapter in its history."

Luverne is under the direction of Coach Bobby Hudson, an Elba High alumni, who joins such coaching legends at Luverne as Glenn Daniel, Butch Norman, Mike Dubose and Scott Rials. In his second year as the head coach, Hudson led his team to a 6-6 record and a second round appearance in the 2A state playoffs, where it was eliminated by eventual state champion Reeltown.

"We have watched film of last year's game and know what they did a year ago in Coach Hudson's

KINSTON VS. ZION CHAPEL

The bulldogs from down near the county line are hoping a new litter of pups that showed up over the summer grow up in a hurry and will be ready to bark when a band of seasoned militia come to town for an opening week showdown. The troops will no doubt be expected little more than a scrimmage. However, this one may not be decided until the fourth quarter.

NEW BROCKTON VS. PIKE LIBERAL ARTS

The roosters could be heard crowing all summer over near the bypass after every practice and can't wait to strut into Gamecock Stadium for their season lid-lifter against a battalion of troops from up across the county line. This could be a little tougher than many think, but the guess here is folks that live near the stadium may head crowing all night long after a big win.

physical football game that will be won in the fourth quarter."

"We entered the week still having a few things to tweak," said Coach Cooper, "but we are getting there and the players are ready to play. I feel like we will be okay on offense and will be able to move the football and put some points on the scoreboard. The key will be to take care of the ball, not hurt ourselves with penalties and to be able to run the ball effectively. Over on the defensive side we have a lot of new faces and they need to play hard, be physical at the line of scrimmage and be aggressive. The key on defense will be to know our assignments, alignments and be able to make adjustments. We have to be solid all across the field, tackle well and get after folks."

"We think our players and in really good shape," stated Cooper. "The players have worked hard all summer in the heat and we practice with a high tempo. I know it is different when they get on the field and the adrenaline starts flowing, but we certainly feel that we are in the best shape possible and will still have something in the tank in the fourth quarter. We have a lot of new faces and the fans will see a lot of new players on the field. However, we are still Elba Tigers and think that way in all we do."

Kinston Bulldogs to host Zion Chapel Rebels Friday in 49th meeting between cross-county gridiron rivals

The Zion Chapel Rebels and Kinston Bulldogs will renew their heated football rivalry Friday night at Bulldog Stadium when the Rebels invade Kinston in the 49th meeting between the two cross-county rivals.

Zion Chapel owns a slim 26-22 series advantage and posted a 27-20 win last season, but the two teams have split the last sixteen games, with Kinston winning five of the last six games played at Bulldog Stadium.

"We are going to be real young," stated Kinston head coach Rudy Free in a recent published interview. "We only have two seniors and four or five juniors, and only have three starters back on both sides of the ball. Most of the players are tenth graders, but we have some good young guys that had success in the lower levels in our junior high program."

The two seniors on the Bulldog roster are guard/linebacker Carter Hughes and offensive tackle Caleb Watson, while one of the starters back is sophomore quarterback Jon Simmons.

"Jon started probably six or seven games for us as a ninth grader," added Free, in his seventh season at Kinston. "Hopefully the learning curve will be a little less and he will be able to throw the ball a little and run the ball a little. He has deceptive speed, and as a three-sport athlete the big state should not faze him."

Coosa Christian suspends coach to save football season

Coosa Christian School principal Julie Delp informed AHSAA Executive Director Heath Harmon last that the school had agreed to suspend head football coach Mark O'Bryant, effective immediately, thus meeting all terms of the AHSAA's original ruling concerning violations in the school's football program.

As a result of the school's compliance, the Alabama High School Athletic Association (AHSAA), in accordance with AHSAA bylaws, lifted the restrictive probation placed on Coosa Christian School's football program, announced Harmon.

Delp said O'Bryant would not have any contact with the football team in the upcoming 2025 football season.

"Based on a review of evidence provided by the school's administration on August 8, the administration of Coosa Christian School has now met all requirements for reinstatement as outlined by the AHSAA and has demonstrated a commitment to an ongoing process to ensure that compliance and success of the Coosa Christian football program and all other athletic programs will be fully aligned with the rules, guidelines, goals, and direction of the AHSAA," Harmon said.

"The AHSAA is pleased with the cooperation of Coosa Christian and Principal Delp for fulfilling all obligations as outlined within the restrictive probation period," Harmon said. "Restrictive probation indicates the seriousness of these past violations, and I feel confident the school administration now understands the serious nature of these violations and has taken the necessary corrective measures to be compliant with AHSAA by-laws. Therefore, as outlined in the original ruling, the restrictive probation is being removed, thus allowing the student-athletes to participate in championship play this season."

The restrictive probation has been replaced with a period of non-restrictive probation for a period of one year. Should any similar violations occur in the future, additional restrictive sanctions may be imposed.

probably have to be our main ball carrier," said Free, "and we have to get the ball in his hands. He is a good athlete and we will have to get him involved a lot."

"We will be a little faster than we have been speed-wise, but we obviously be young," Free stated. "I think we may be able to play some guys a little more one way, especially on defense, and I think we can play more guys than we have in the past. One area that has the potential to be a strength is the offensive line. They have a lot of potential and have done well in the JV program, but just haven't played varsity football. We have around ten or eleven tenth graders and also have a couple of ninth graders that will probably contribute on defense."

"We have a good group of kids and it's probably been the best summer we have had," added Free. "I am looking forward to the season, but at the same time we have a lot of kids that haven't played on a Friday night. So, I guess we will just have to find out."

Zion Chapel has been a team on the rise under Coach Cody Keene, improving from three wins in his first season to five in his second and seven in his third. Despite the steady improvement; however, Keene feels the Rebels are still getting the respect they deserve.

"I feel like we still have something to prove," said Keene, in a recent published interview. "We will have to play with a chip on our shoulders."

The Rebels will return only four starters on offense. However, three starters return at key positions, led by quarterback John Foster Hamm, a senior that passed for 719 yards and rushed for 386 yards last season, while accounting for 18 touchdowns.

"He is a good leader and manages everything," said Keene, of his senior, signal-caller. "He is a smart kid and can people lined up and make sure we are in the right calls. He is consistent in everything he does and has been that way since he was a freshman."

Two other players being counted on the offensive side of the ball are running back Brayden Benbow and h-back Jeremiah Stinson, while Gage Wambles will also return on the line. Over on defense, the Rebels will have seven starters back, led by All-State linebacker Brayden Benbow, who has been in on 327 tackles and recovered eight fumbles over the past three seasons.

"We are glad to return Benbow," said Coach Keene, in his fourth season at Zion Chapel. "He was all-state as a sophomore and has done some good things in the summer and fall. He makes most of the tackles, does a good job making sure everybody is lined up on defense, and will be playing defense for the fourth straight season."

Other defensive starters include Jeremiah Stinson and Trent Elrod at linebacker, Gage Wambles and Bobby Rhodes in the line, and Joeb Bradley and Zach English in the secondary.

Friday night's match-up will be between two teams with a very different team chemistry, but a long tradition on the gridiron, and will no doubt be a heated four-quarter contest.

New Brockton Gamecocks looking to open season with a bang in clash with Pike Liberal Arts Patriots

Two teams hungry for success will tangle Friday night at Gamecock Stadium when the New Brockton Gamecocks host the Pike Liberal Arts Patriots, of Troy.

It will mark only the second meeting ever between the two teams, with New Brockton being awarded a forfeit win late in the season after dropping a 35-6 contest on the field in the season opener.

"They haven't had a lot of success in the last few years," stated new head coach Reggie Melton in a recently published interview, "so they probably feel like they can't. If you keep getting them to believe that they can, eventually they will break the surface. I don't know what's been going on here in the past, but you've got to make them feel like they can do it."

"The biggest thing is changing the mentality – getting the kids to believe and work hard," added Melton, the former coach at Headland. "I told them the beginning of the summer that we were going to run 48 sprints in one day before the season was over, and one day we actually ran 50. After we finished I asked them if they thought I was crazy when I said and a lot of them raised their hands, but they actually did it and nobody quit."

While the Gamecocks struggled to post 3-7 and 4-6 records the past two seasons, the cupboard is far from bare at New Brockton, led by Anthony Siler on offense and Bryant Crumpler on defense. Siler rushed for 537 yards with five touchdowns, caught 28 passes for 374 yards and five touchdowns, and returned a kickoff for a score, while Crumpler was an all-state performer at linebacker with 163 tackles and eight quarterback sacks.

"He is a guy that leads by example," said Melton of Siler. "He'll do anything you ask and is a very quiet kid and a very talented kid. We are going to move him around everywhere. He will be in the slot, he will be at running back and he will be at quarterback at times. We are going to get the ball in his hands."

Another weapon on offense will be junior quarterback Wesley Creel, a player Coach Melton said "Has a strong arm and is a guy that really works hard to believes in getting better."

"Defense will be the strength of our team," added Melton, "as we have eight starters back and are really good and fast. All those guys have been starting for a while."

Other returnees in defense include Brayden Crumpler at defensive end, tackles Leo Reyes and Cordell Henderson, linebacker Kaiden Sims and defensive back Cooper Medley.

"Our mentality is that we aren't going to be down from anybody," declared Melton. "We are tired of being everyone's homecoming game. We won't be homecoming anymore!"

Pike Liberal Arts, coached by former New Brockton standout William Moguel, has been plagued by off-the-field issues in recent years, but is looking forward to the new season despite having to replace ten seniors.

"Our strength is going to be up front on both sides of the ball," stated Moguel, in a recent published interview. "We feel good about those guys up front and feel we will be able to run the football. I am real excited about the offense because of what we have up front and the experience we have in the line. I am pleased with what we have on defense up front. It is a matter of teaching them the technique and fundamentals and getting them to have a fly to the ball mentally."

The offensive line has three starters back in the offensive line, with three that weigh in at over 245 pounds, and also return have two receivers over six-feet one, and a sophomore quarterback that Coach Moguel stated, "Is an athletic kid that throws the ball well."

"This is my third year as the head coach and this is probably the strongest team we have had," added Moguel. "We had a great summer in the weight room and are physically stronger than we have been since I have been here. If we can stay healthy and our young, inexperienced guys get some playing time, I think we will be pretty good when those tough region games come around."

Kickoff will be at 7:00 pm at Gamecock Stadium.

What does the Bible say about... Worshipping God?

Article written by Douglas Williams

"Give unto the Lord the glory due to His name; worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness" (Psalm 29:2).

"Exalt the Lord our God, and worship at His footstool (holy hill) for the Lord our God is holy" (Psalm 99:5, 9).

"I will call upon the Lord, who is worthy to be praised; so shall I be saved from my enemies" (2 Samuel 22:4).

"You are worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honor and power; for you created all things" (Revelation 4:11).

"Worship Him who made heaven and earth, the sea and springs of water" (Revelation 14:7).

Last week, this writing defined worship, showing that the true God of heaven desires our worship and is to be worshipped in the way the Bible teaches (John 4:23-24). The Bible tells us that worship may be vain, ignorant, or will worship that is not acceptable to God. Now, as shown in the above verses, we emphasize how God is worthy of our worship because of who He is, and with his power, glory, and holiness, He created all things.

Jesus the Son of God, along with the Father and Holy Spirit, make up the Godhead or trinity (Colossians 2:9). We worship God through Jesus Christ, who is our mediator and intercessor (1 Timothy 2:5; Hebrews 7:25), thereby worshipping Christ.

The song, "Worthy Art Thou," reminds us of Revelation 5:12. This song was written in 1930 by Tillit S. Teddlie.

"Worthy of praise is Christ our Redeemer;

Worthy of glory, honor, and power!

Worthy of all our souls' adoration;

Worthy art Thou! Worthy art Thou!

Worthy of riches, blessings, and honor,

Worthy of wisdom, glory and power!

Worthy of earth and heaven's thanksgiving,

Worthy art thou! Worthy art Thou!

desire to avoid Hell. Many Christians say "NO" to temptation because they do not want to face God's wrath. This need not be our only motive for righteous living. But when other reasons for following the Lord's guidance fail, this one is good enough. "The Lord knoweth the way of the righteous; but the way of the ungodly shall perish" (Psalm 1:6).

JUDGMENT COMES

For Bonnie and Clyde, earthly judgment came swiftly in a hail of bullets. For Al Capone, early judgment moved more slowly, but he eventually went to prison and died gradually of syphilis after his release. More recently, organized crime Leader John Gotti received imprisonment. Crooks are not the only ones who are forced to face the consequences of their actions. Anyone who violates God's Law will face His condemnation. "For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that everyone may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done. Whether it be good or bad" (2 Corinthians 5:10). Fear of divine condemnation is appropriate motive to help us live righteously. Many young people make a genuine commitment to Christ motivated by the

ESCC's Hanson wins national award for excellence in technical education

On July 23, Aubri Hanson received the NC3 Festo Instructor of the Year Award during the National Coalition of Certification Centers (NC3) Annual Leadership Summit in Kenosha, Wisconsin.

The award recognizes technical educators who show a strong commitment to career and technical education and student success through the NC3 program.

"Aubri Hanson exemplifies the spirit of collaboration and innovation that defines the NC3 Festo network," Festo Program Manager Lisa Marshall said. "As a leading advocate for NC3 certifications across seven different industry partners, she has consistently championed the value of skills-based training to strengthen workforce pipelines. Her willingness to work with schools in other states to develop and expand programs has made a lasting impact on technical education across North America."

"Aubri Hanson exemplifies what it takes to be a leader in education," Festo Didactic Inc. Director Business Development Steve Lehr said.

"Her persistence and obvious passion sets her apart from her peers. Festo is proud that Mrs. Hanson has chosen to work with us in building one of the strongest programs in the nation. Her students, school, industry and community will continue to share the benefits of her dedication."

Hanson joined the Enterprise State Community College in the spring of 2019 to develop and lead the Mechatronics program. Since launching in Fall 2019, the program has grown from 12 students to 75 in Spring 2025. Students have also earned 5,455 of credentials from Festo, Snap-on, Greenlee, and other NC3 partners.

In addition to individual credentials, the College now offers:

- Eight short-term certificate options, one that is transferable to Troy University
- One long-term certificate
- One associate degree that is fully transferable to the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga

Under Hanson's leadership, instructional staff has grown to six instructors, two of whom are former graduates of the program. The program is now being taught in three locations: the Ozark and Enterprise campuses of ESCC and the Troy-Pike Center for Technology. The program's success has also earned the College the designation of an NC3 Center of Excellence.

In 2024, Hanson was named the chair for the College's new Division of Applied Technology, which includes mechatronics, welding, automotive technology and plumbing. She was also the recipient of an ACCS Chancellor's Award for Technical Faculty of the Year in 2024 for ESCC.

"I am honored to have been selected for this award out of all the fantastic technology instructors that NC3 and Festo work with in North America," Hanson said. "I have a wonderful network of family, friends, administrators, co-workers, and colleagues from other institutions and industry that have all pitched in to help propel myself and this program to the current level of success. I am excited for what the future holds, as we continue to grow and develop the future of manufacturing education in our community, our state, and our nation."

Todd Herendeen to perform concert Aug. 23 in Elba

The Elba Theatre will be jamming Saturday evening, Aug. 23, when singer Todd Herendeen and his band stop in to deliver a Tribute to the Legends concert.

From Panama City Beach, Fla., Herendeen said he has been performing for many years, and simply loves it.

Beyond Floriday, he said he and his band enjoy traveling all over the country delivering concerts in smaller venues like the Elba Theatre.

"We have so much fun performing these smaller concerts," he said. "If you enjoy the legends, like Orbison, Elvis, and others, this will be a fun evening for you."

Coffee County residents Randle and Sandra Moore are the local connection that helped to set up the Elba concert.

Herendeen said he has known the couple for many years, and they are good friends.

"Randle asked me about coming to the area to perform if he helped set things up, and I was all for it," Herendeen said. "We are excited to come to Elba later this month and deliver a musical show that all will enjoy."

Randle Moore said catching a Todd Herendeen concert is well worth it. He and Sandra encourage anyone who enjoys music from the 50's, 60's and 70's to make plans to be in Elba Aug. 23rd for the concert.

The doors will open at 6:15 that night with the concert set to begin at 7 p.m. Tickets are $25 per person or $45 for two. Call (850) 381-0310 to purchase tickets or online at ToddHerendeenTheatre.

Carlos J. Magwood Makes Final Appeal to Voters Before August 26 Election

With Election Day just around the corner, mayoral candidate Carlos J. Magwood is making his final appeal to the people of Elba. Reflecting on his campaign journey, Magwood expressed heartfelt appreciation for the outpouring of community support.

"I want to sincerely thank the over 500 followers and the thousands who viewed, liked, and shared my platform," he said. "This has been an incredibly humbling experience, and I'm proud of the meaningful conversations we've had about Elba's future."

Magwood's campaign has centered on a clear and consistent vision: "Elba Forward" — a commitment to leadership that listens, acts, and puts the needs of the people first.

He emphasized the importance of purposeful leadership and community unity, calling for transparent, responsive government that communicates openly and empowers every resident—from youth to seniors.

A strong proponent of economic development, Magwood pledged to support local entrepreneurs by reducing red tape, creating incentives for growth, and collaborating with development boards to attract new investment.

"Small businesses are the backbone of our city," he said. "We must support them, not burden them."

Addressing long-standing concerns about city services, Magwood proposed the creation of a new Economic Development Department tasked with securing state and federal grants for infrastructure improvements. He stressed the need for clear communication about outages, billing issues, and public works projects, promising greater transparency across all departments.

Magwood has also made Elba's youth a campaign priority. He plans to expand job opportunities, internships, and mentorship programs by partnering with schools, businesses, and local organizations. Recognizing the lack of affordable housing for young families, he intends to work with local builders, state agencies and nonprofits to bring new housing options to the community.

Additionally, Magwood has committed to enhancing services for seniors and veterans, working alongside agencies and local groups to ensure access to resources, support programs, and community events that honor their contributions.

Above all, strong leadership, transparency and accountability have been the foundation of Magwood's campaign. He proposes launching new communication channels—newsletters, social media updates, and community forums—to keep residents informed.

"Leadership isn't just about making decisions," Magwood said. "It's about being open, honest, and responsive to the people you serve. It's about trust."

As Elba prepares to vote on Tuesday, August 26, Magwood is calling on residents to choose a mayor who brings people together, focuses on solutions, and leads with integrity.

"Together, we can move Elba forward," Magwood said. "Let's build a future we can all be proud of."

Public Release

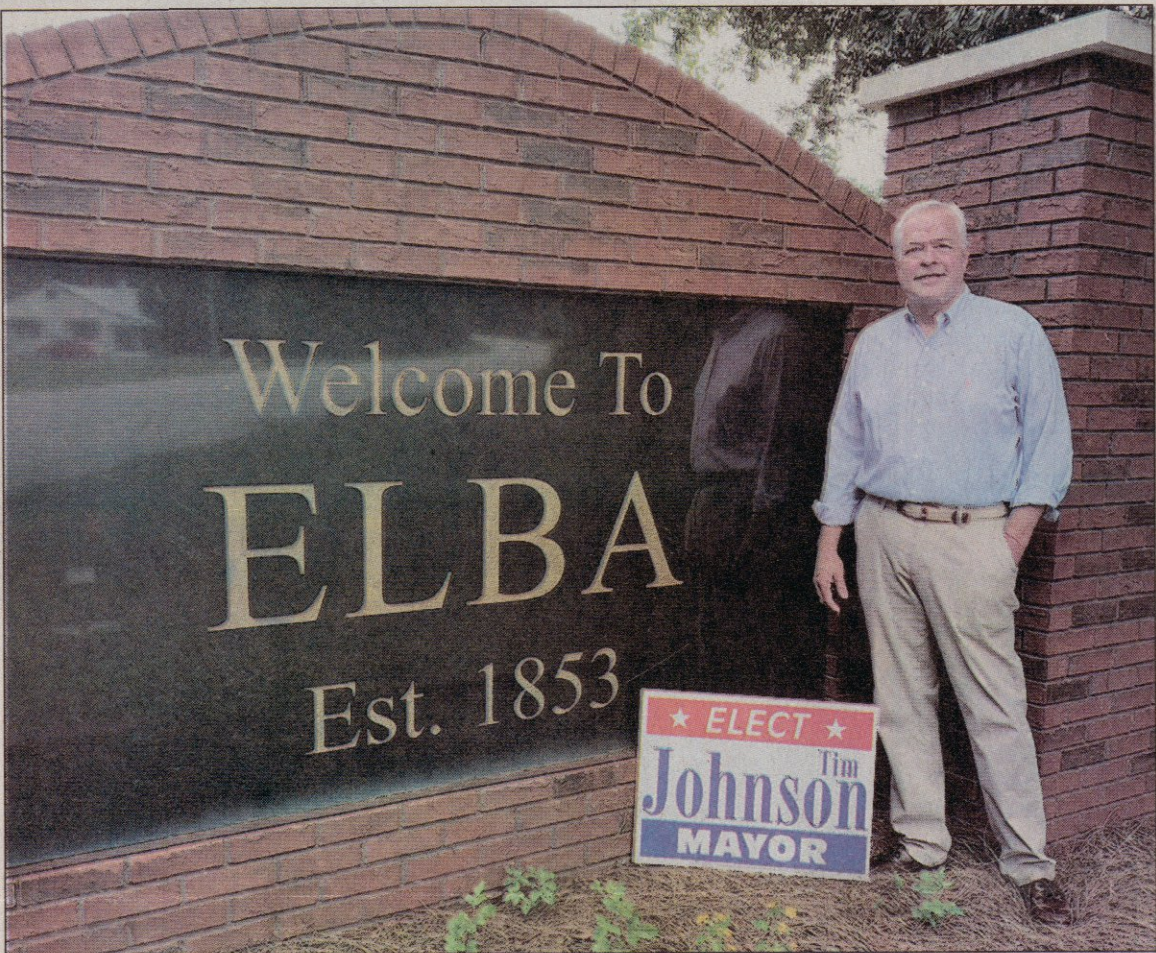

Coffee County Schools today announced its policy for free and reduced-price meals for children served in schools under the National School Lunch Program and/or School Breakfast Program. For School Year 2025-2026, Coffee County Schools will continue participation in the Community Eligibility Provision (CEP). No further action is required of you. This USDA provision allows your child(ren) to participate in the school meal programs without having to pay a fee or submit a meal application.

CEP is a key provision of the Healthy, Hunger Free Kids Act of 2010, which allows schools and school districts in low-income areas to eliminate school meal applications and serve breakfast and lunch at no charge to all enrolled students. CEP gives food service professionals more time to focus on preparing nutritious meals that their students will enjoy and gives students more time to eat those meals by cutting down on time spent in the lunch line. More importantly, by offering all students a nutritious breakfast and lunch at no cost, CEP helps ensure more students come to class well-nourished and ready to learn.

Children need healthy meals to learn. Coffee County Schools offer healthy meals every school day. Breakfast and lunch meals will follow the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) guidelines for healthy school meals, so please encourage students to participate. "In the operation of child feeding programs, no child will be discriminated against because of race, sex, color, national origin, age or disability."

Parents or guardians who need further information may contact Betsy Wood, Child Nutrition Program Director, at (334) 897-5016 or woodb@coffeecounty.k12.al.us.

ADPH seeks proposals to protect youth from nicotine initiation and exposure to secondhand smoke

The Alabama Department of Public Health (ADPH) is currently accepting proposals to collaborate with qualified organizations in Alabama to affect social norm changes around tobacco use and promote policies that protect youth from nicotine initiation and exposure to secondhand smoke. Successful applicants will promote community environments that protect elementary, middle, and high school-aged children from exposure to second-hand smoke, educate students regarding the tobacco industry's deceptive marketing tactics, and promote cessation.

The program anticipates awarding up to nine grants ranging from $30,000 to $75,000. Payment is on a monthly reimbursement basis, contingent upon the satisfactory completion of services for the period during which services were rendered.

ADPH is seeking applicants from governmental agencies and not-for-profit organizations that can demonstrate capacity in policy development, advocacy, community education and mobilization.

Organizations are invited to submit proposals for consideration by September 5, 2025. A copy of the RFP can be found on the ADPH website at this link: <https://www.alabamapublichealth.gov/tobacco/youth-prevention.html>

Martinetti withdraws from Elba City Council, District 3 race

Elba Citizens, After much consideration, I have chosen to withdraw my candidacy for Elba City Council, District 3 council member.

I now ask you to vote for Christy Eubanks Laramore to be our next council member for Elba's District Three. I have spent many hours talking to her, and our ideas and ideals align. Her main concern is making Elba better for ALL citizens.

"I moved to Elba a year ago, and I love it," Martinetti said. "My run was instigated by my frustration with the lack of clarity and transparency. No more multiple terms...I believe it is time for a change."

On Tuesday, Aug. 26th, VOTE Laramore for Elba City Council Member, District 3
